BEFORE THE TRADEMARK TRIAL AND APPEAL BOARD

In the Matter of Application of:

OPPOSER'S REPLY TO APPLICANT'S BRIEF IN OPPOSITION TO OPPOSER'S MOTION FOR SUSPENSION

Opposer respectfully requests leave to submit this short Reply in response to Applicant's opposition brief.¹

It seems disingenuous for Applicant to argue at this early stage in the civil action that its unitary mark of a wave logo, coupled with the RESON word element, will be absent from a judicial examination of the respective parties' marks in commerce. We presume Applicant is not suggesting that the jury is precluded from viewing its mark as a whole because the opposed element forms but a part of its mark, while the element on which it accuses Opposer forms the other part.

Opposer wishes to re-emphasize a basic point that Applicant misses. Rule 2.117(a) does not require, as a condition precedent to a suspension, that the civil action involve the identical mark as that in the Opposition. Although that may be a common fact pattern, it is not a condition of suspension. New Orleans Louisiana Saints LLC and NFL Properties v. Who Dat?, Inc. 99 U.S.P.Q. 2d 1550 (T.T.A.B. 2011) does not hold otherwise. Applicant cannot manufacture a generalized rule based on the particular facts of that case. In fact, that case relies upon 6 McCarthy on Trademarks and Unfair Competition Sec. 32:47 (4th ed. updated June 2011), citing: “(‘It is standard procedure for the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board to stay administrative proceedings pending the outcome of court litigation between the same parties involving related issues.’)”

For these reasons, and those set forth in its Motion of April 11, 2012, Opposer respectfully requests suspension.

Respectfully submitted,
